'Living life in its fullness' at Nutgrove

Celebrating EuroVision as a school in our very own SuperVision

Year 3 imagined they were Roman soldiers and marched holding their shield (scutum) and sword (gladius).

Well-done to our afterschool dance club, who performed on the Theatre Royal this week.

'All the children represented our school so well and their performance was incredible.' Mrs Bottell

Safeguarding

Year 6 Hoodies

Please be mindful that if you choose to let your child wear their leavers' hoodie to school, that they have their name visible. Please consider the safeguarding implications of this particularly if they walk to and from school alone, and discuss these with your child.

COULD YOU SPARE SOME TIME
St Matthew's Parents & Toddlers Group Known as Supertots. Has been meeting.
On a Tuesday morning in term time for the last 30 years providing support for the carers and lots of fun for the children We need some help to continue. To provide the service mainly with help with refreshments and supervision of craft We are in serious danger of not being able to open our doors in September If you feel able to help please contact Chris Brookes on 07584565513

Please bring all donations into school for us to deliver.
